JOSEPH E. BRENNAN
GOVERNOR

February 23, 1983

Donald M. Priest
[REDACTED]

Dear Mr. Priest:

Governor Brennan has asked me to respond to your recent request for a gubernatorial proclamation.

The Governor receives a great many requests from numerous worthy organizations and individuals; however, in an effort to focus and maintain the attention of both the media and the general public only a very limited number of proclamations are issued.

Governor Brennan will not be issuing the proclamation you requested but please do not interpret this decision as in any way reflecting on the merit of your request. It is, rather, an effort to prevent the dilution of the effect of gubernatorial proclamations in general for which we receive all too many worthy requests.

Thank you for your consideration and interest.

Sincerely,
